Scala Days

Business-driven

Business networking and exchange of cutting edge technology ideas are the beating heart of Scala Days. Since 2010, companies have found new business partners, ideas, and various innovative solutions. It's to this conference that people come for inspiration from experienced Scala shops and startups alike. It's where the future of Scala business takes shape.

Community-infused

Whenever we organise an event, we do so in coordination with various other community organisations and contributors, all powered by love for Scala. Scala Days 2026 will also benefit from this synergy, bringing the community together to learn, share, contribute, and celebrate successes and lessons learned along the way.

Impact

By sponsoring Scala Days, you are playing a crucial role in shaping an impactful and unforgettable experience for participants, speakers, and the entire community. Your contribution helps foster an environment where innovative ideas thrive, connections are made, and industry leaders inspire the next generation of developers. Through your sponsorship, you empower us to bring together the brightest minds in the Scala ecosystem, ensuring that every attendee leaves with valuable knowledge and lasting memories.
